

22/08/2011

TCN NEWSLETTER -- SPRING 2011

Here is a roundup of links to our latest news.

Transformation Christian Network: Worklife Ministry

TCN's Worklife Ministry's desire is to see Christians flourish as faithful and fruitful followers of Jesus, making a difference wherever they are – home, work, university, club, in all the places where they connect with people in today's world. The City Wide Ethics Campaign recently launched Unashamedly Ethical to prepare unbelievers to receive Jesus Christ....read the story

Family Outreach

FAMSA in Port Elizabeth hoped to partner with local churches and some 170 NGO's involved in family outreach, through the medium of the new forgood social networking platform, (Photo: Chairperson TCN & FAMSA: Pastor Mvusi Gwam)

During the consultation at the Hoogland Dutch Reformed Church, delegates heard presentations by PE FAMSA director Erna Jonker on the alarming breakdown of family life in South Africa, and by Brian Helsby of Heartlines on the new Forgood technology that was developed to facilitate community project networking....read the story

New forum will speak for Church in Nelson Mandela Bay

A new church leaders' forum, known as the Nelson Mandela Bay Consultation of Christian Churches (NMBCCC), has been established to promote partnerships in which church leaders in the metropole can listen, speak and act together.

The establishment of the forum was part of "an amazing move of the Holy Spirit" calling on the church in South Africa to recover its prophetic voice in society, said NMBCCC facilitator, Rev Gill Bowman, in an interview yesterday....read the story

Nelson Mandela Bay Crime Initiative

The Crime Initiative has been privileged to be able to co-operate with the SAPS in their fight against 'gangsterism', crime and violence by training interdenominational groups of churches to effectively participate in the Prayer Walks in their areas. Many Churches and Prayer Warriors networking with TCN have joined in the Prayer Walks. Gen. Rabie – the city's co-chief of police – is the one that is motivating these 'Prayer Walks'. Come on Church let's take up this challenge!read the story

NMB: TCN Prayer School

A Prayer Training Day – which consists of two sessions - is held once a quarter. These Training Days have been extremely well supported, informative and have borne fruit. The subjects that have been covered are very practical and each session has sensed the anointing of God. The Final Training Day for 2011 is on the 14th October and will cover 'Spiritual Warfare' and 'Taking our Cities for God'.

FAMSA joins social media revolution

FAMSA in Port Elizabeth is embracing social media technology that could greatly increase its ability to reach communities with a wide range of family support services.

Ten FAMSA counsellors in PE have undergone training in the use of the innovative South African-developed Jamiix platform and the organisation plans to pilot the technology at a local primary school before using it more widely, said PE FAMSA director Erna Jonker in an interview today....read the story

God bless
The TCN Team